Canadian History 1201 invites students to engage in a range of inquiries that will enable them to develop an understanding of significant historical events from the 20th century, to analyze how those events are shaping Canada today, and reflect on how these events may help Canada achieve a preferred future.

While attention will be drawn to exploring major economic, military and political events, students are asked to consider the consequences of these events in shaping the social history of Canada. In particular, attention should focus on the experiences of Aboriginal peoples, women, recent immigrants, minority groups and the working class.
