

Booth Memorial High

World Religion 3101

2014 - 2015

Teacher: Mr. Steve Moores

Rm: 226

Contact: stevenmoores@nlesd.ca, <http://mooresbooth.weebly.com/>, @BoothSmoores

World Religions 3101 is a study of the living belief systems. Students explore the nature, place and function of these world religions within contemporary Canadian Society.

Course Content:

1. Introduction: Chapter 1
2. Aboriginal Spirituality: Chapter 2
3. Early Religions: Chapter 3
 - a. Zoroastrianism
 - b. Jainism
 - c. Taoism
 - d. Confucianism
 - e. Shinto
4. Hinduism: Chapter 4
5. Buddhism: Chapter 5

Evaluation:

Tests/Quizzes

30%

Performance Assessment

70%

- Worksheets
- Homework
- Projects/Assignments
- Journal Writing
- Performance Portfolio
- Classroom Participation